Generosity...

... is a spiritual gift. It is also one of the finger prints of God... wherever you experience generosity, there's an excellent chance God is there.

Genesis chapter one reminds us that we are created in the image of God, "Imago Dei," as the early church called it. Each and every time we exhibit, manifest, or act-out one of our image-of-God likenesses, people are blessed!

One of the tests of an effective congregation is whether or not the congregation would be missed by the community outside of the church, if it ceased to exist. There are many congregations who basically function as "members only" institutions, where the building functions as "their" clubhouse. Church futurists believe that these are among those congregations that will not last long into this millennium. There are other congregations, who join in Jesus' passion for seeking and saving the lost, who find themselves to be sources of life for the "outside" community. When a congregation willingly lays down its life for those whom are loved by God, image-of-God things happen.

Our congregational council made a decision last summer, to enable the congregation to decide if we would put out a sign that would both inform and invite those outside of our congregation. In a sense, we who know where we are and what we are about have no need of such a sign. I have been amazed in the last few weeks for the passion several donors for reaching those who are not yet part of this congregation. Their concern, along with the countless donors who have helped this project along, profess which kind of congregation we will be.

The council subtly asked the question, "How much to you care? Do you care enough to go out on a limb to reach the ones who do not yet know they need to be here?" Your answer is a resounding, "Yes!"

Thank you for the countless ways in which you allow God's image in you to spread out into our community and indeed, the world.

It is both a joy and Holy privilege to serve along side of you as together we live and serve in God's in-breaking kingdom!

Soli Deo Gloria! (to God alone be the Glory!)

Gold Canyon Coordinating Committee

April 3, 2018

Attending: Pr. Tina Mills, Pr. Bill Rindy, Mike Johnson, Ron Rock, Suzy Cavoto, Janice Cunningham, Anita Pope, Ruthie Beutel, Leonard Schroeder, Kim McCracken, Dave Reurink, Susan Drane

Absent: Robert Cunningham, Deb Herman, Karen Howard, John Malmberg,

Pr. Tina opened the meeting with prayer.

New Business:

The new staff member is Kayla Wilson. Staff duties are being sorted and reassigned. The Staff Meeting has been moved to Monday afternoon. Sonya will work Monday afternoon and with additional responsibilities, she will work from home on Wednesday and Friday. The Synod Assembly will be held in Oro Valley June 14th through the 16th. Both Pr. Bill and Pr. Tina will be attending as pastoral representatives. Three male and three female members will represent OSL. They consist of Mike Kraklow, Mike Johnson, Robert Cunningham, Kim McCracken, Susan Drane and Janice Cunningham. Three women and 2 men will be voting representatives. The third man will be an alternate.

Mike Johnson informed us that there are several openings for positions on the Synod Council. Both Pr. Bill and Pr. Tina are open to serve the larger church. Mike will follow upon this. The Rio Salado Conference meets April 28th at Bethlehem Lutheran in Mesa. Information on what to expect at the Synod Assembly will be presented. All representatives from OSL are encouraged to attend. Info is on the Rio Salado web site.

Janice visited with Bob Homann today. He is under Hospice care but welcomes calls and visits. He suggested we investigate the last time the floors were refinished. Desert Solutions was used in the past. Janice will contact them and report at the May meeting.

Old Business:

Pr. Terry is considering working a very limited schedule next High Season. Therefore we are delaying his good bye cake.

Acoustical panels: Dave let us know the panels will be delivered and installed this Friday, April 6th.

Handrail: The handrails are in to be powder coated. Some members of the choir are having a difficult time stepping up onto the back row of the risers. It was suggested that we check with Richard Wall to see if any handrails were included with the original risers. We probably need to know the name of the manufacturer. Janice will follow up.

Harmony wellness will be at each campus May 9th, 10th and 11th.

Worship times were revisited. Adding a third service at Gold Canyon will allow room for our congregation to grow. Times would match those at East Mesa. Sunday Service times would be 7:30, 9:00 and 10:30 am. The only comments from the congregation have been negative. Pr. Bill reminded us to ask the correct question. What does our mission compel us to do? Do we want the church to grow? What is our part? This question will be on the agenda again in May.

Pastors and Staff

Pr. Bill thanked all staff and volunteers for all the help during Lent season. Pr. Bill will be

Kim McCracken said Lent and the holy Week was meaningful.
