Pivotal moments are nothing new to the Christian journey. The New Testament is flooded with them. Should James and John leave their nets and follow Jesus? Should Jairus keep bothering the teacher? Should Peter get out of the boat and walk to Jesus? Should Judas betray Jesus for 30 pieces of silver? Should Jesus give in to the temptations thrown at him on the cross? Pivotal moments are everywhere.

One of my favorite philosophers, Yogi Berra, once said that when one comes to a fork in the road, one should take it. The challenge of pivotal moments is which fork ought one take? For example, fear versus faith. As followers of Jesus, we can follow in faith or cower in fear. Yet even between these two choices there can be an ultra-thin line: does staying at home reflect fear or love of the neighbor? It can be either. Is financial frugality the prudent thing to do or is keeping businesses/charities supported the thing to do?

Every good gift is from God; the evil one seeks to distort/warp/destroy all of God's good intentions.

It should also be no surprise that the Christian life is shaped by scripture, both in content and form. When we find our journey paralleling the paths of those in scripture, it shouldn't surprise us. Jesus own life paralleled the story of the Israelites. One of my seminary mentors stated that the Christian life is cruciform (that is, in the shape of the cross). Jesus himself said that to follow him involved denying oneself, taking up ones' cross, and following him. (Matthew 16:24) While this is indeed part of the good news, it is also extremely challenging.

As we follow Jesus, we experience the denying and the cross bearing. From the world's perspective, one only sees what one is giving up, what one is losing. From the perspective of Jesus' in-breaking kingdom, one cannot always immediately see what one is gaining. "For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. ²⁶ For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life?" Matthew 16:25-26 NRSV

The forks are not always clear as to where they lead.

So, what is one to do? Follow in faith where Christ is leading. How does one discern and know which path? Jesus himself is the way, the path. At times there may seem a lack of clarity, when the way is foggy at best. What do we normally try do in such cases? Read scripture. Pray. Seek the wisdom of good council. Step out in faith.

As a congregation, our shared journey often resembles the journey of Israel and the cross. I can remember last year clearly when we longed to be done with the water retention project. "It will be so nice when that it done!" I so naively opined. Sometimes the challenge we know is so much easier to face than the challenge we don't know. I have witnessed this countless times as people awaited a diagnosis. They wanted to know what they were up against and the path to healing. The "up-in-the-air-ness" of the present has everyone a bit skittish. How long will this last? How much will my loved ones be affected? When will things get back to normal? You will find all of these questions in the Psalms.

In philosophy class, we looked at the statement, "A river is never the same twice." My very wise teacher changed it to, "A river is never the same." The "twice" is not needed. As a river flows, it will never be what it just was – ever. The same is true of life. Life will never be the same (I so wanted to add the word "again", but it would have been unnecessary).

Fortunately, we worship a God who is making all things new, including us. While being church is taking different forms than it has in the past, the Holy Spirit of the Living God is making all things new. In 587 B.C.E., the children of Israel lost their temple. It had been central to their worship. During their exile in Babylon, they had to figure out how to be God's chosen people without the temple and its accompanying rituals. So they became people of the Book, The Torah. What does it mean to serve God when we can't do it the ways in which we are used to doing? The resulting answers and teachings form what is known as the Talmud. It defines what it means to be an observant Jew.

A year ago, we asked a question of God, "Does your mission still need an Our Savior's Lutheran Church in the east valley?" It's still a good question. It is still an important question. As we live into the future God provides, we will once again collectively answer that question. Will things ever be the same? (They never were; remember the river?) What shape will our shared ministries take in the altered present? We're figuring that out on the fly. What shape will our shared ministries take in the future? Quite literally, God only knows. Through the ways in which we collectively "roll up our sleeves" and get to work, through the ways in which we support one another in prayer and in mission, and through the ways in which God empowers us to serve our neighbor will determine our new "normal" (not that there ever was or ever will be such a thing as normal – remember, normal is often over-rated).

We live in extraordinary times. We serve an extraordinary God, who is creating an extraordinary future for each of us and for Our Savior's Lutheran Church.

Our staff will do all we can to help you all make it to the other side. We trust that you will do what you can to help our congregation make it to the other side. Together, we will help each other to the other side. It's the final phase of the journey: for the Israelites to enter the promised land; for Christians to cross over death and the grave to the promised house-of-many-rooms.

Thank you for all you bring to our shared journey. It is a delight to experience the diversity of gifts God has placed within you all together we forward the work of God's kingdom. We thank you for the ways in which you will help this congregation to keep doing God's work together into the future. Ultimately, God will help us know which fork to take to bring God glory, while giving us the strength and fortitude to follow.

On behalf of your fellow travelers...

Pastor Bill Rindy

Lord God, you have called your servants to ventures of which we cannot see the ending, by paths as yet untrodden, through perils unknown. Give us faith to go out with good courage, not knowing where we go, but only that your hand is leading us and your love supporting us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. (Lutheran Book of Worship, 1978)

3. Common Sense – if sick, stay home; use tissues rather than sleeves when sneezing and/or coughing
4. Offering – provide lockable, slotted boxes for offering instead of passing plates; use e-offering options
5. Sanitizers – provide bottles of sanitizer at doors and kitchen
6. Doors – prop doors open instead of using handle
7. Avoid shaking hands, hugging, fist bumps, elbow bumps
8. Unknowable – state/county may pass out restrictions

The group really appreciated this information. Mike Johnson moved that John present the same information to the Council on March 17th seconded by Kitty Daniels. Motion passed.

Ruth Parker has joined us as a new member of the Coordinating Committee and will represent Gold Canyon on the Mission Committee.

Easter Brunch has been scheduled again this year in place of a 730 am service. It will immediately follow the sunrise service. Karen Howard will verify that WELCA will spearhead this again. If they do, any free will offering will be theirs to decide how to use.

Pastor and Staff Reports

Pastor Bill – Pr. Nancy will be filling in for Pr. Tina while she is on vacation on March 7th. The final computer was replaced this week. It was the one at Gold Canyon that is used for the security system. The attendance has dropped a bit at East Mesa but has shown growth at all services at Gold Canyon. The staff is working well together and are all growing competent within their responsibilities.

Pr. Tina – She will be on vacation March 7th through March 13th. Pi Day is March 14th at 10 am with pie being served to thank all the church’s volunteers. She encouraged all to attend. Pr. Tina thanked the congregation for allowing the time and funds for continuing education. She recently attended a seminar on “Everyday Spirituality” and will be using this information in future programs. There was a big jump in attendance at Gold Canyon on Ash Wednesday, sixty-eight people were served soup and one hundred and twenty-three attended services. There will be a memorial service for Richard Ronan on March 21st.

Our Saviors Lutheran Church
Gold Canyon Coordinating Committee
March 3, 2020

Kim McCracken – The Fun Van through the Apache Junction Library is only funded through mid-March. She was contacted by a company that holds banquets and weddings in outdoor locals and were considering Gold Canyon as a Plan B in case of rain. The no alcohol policy is probably a dealbreaker. This is an item that needs to be discussed by the Council. Our insurance company also needs to be contacted. Dinner and a Movie will be held at East Mesa on March 12th. The movie is “Risen”. March 29th is Family Service day at Gold Canyon. She is encouraging people to stay after the 1030 service for crafts with the youth. VBS is June 15th through the 19th. Campformation is July 4th through the 10th. Culver’s on Chrisman will partner with OSL on a fundraiser March 9th through March 15th. They will donate a portion of their sales these days. The Discipleship meeting has been moved to Wed April 8th at 330 pm

Ministry Chair Reports (only those with current activity are shown below)

Care – Kitty Daniels is still sending cards and making connections.

Discipleship –Suzy Cavoto, Kitty Daniels – Kim’s report covered their report.

Evangelism – A Holy Week brochure is being produced. The next Evangelism meeting will be March 9th.

Finance – Karen reported that donations are up for January and February over last year same time.

Good News – The Snack program will place a Holy Week flyer in each bag this week. Spring Break starts next week so the snack packs from March 5th will include extra food. Packing will resume on the 26th. Mike is working with Head Start to get some non-refrigerated small milk cartons to include in the snack packs. Richard Falk is also working on finding another source for milk. Saturday night services have seen some new attendees from Florence. He will check on prices for advertising Easter services in the News and make a recommendation to the Evangelism Committee.

Missions – Ruth Parker has been working on a shoe and sock drive for three schools. These will include Peralta Trail, Stevenson Elementary and the Navaho Lutheran Mission School. This will replace the school supply and shoe drive. There was some discussion concerning communications during the summer among the committee members. This is an item the Council needs to address.

Property Team – Robert met with a supervisor from the cleaning company regarding the kitchen and bathroom floors. The supervisor saw that the kitchen mats were actually stuck to the floors because the cleaner has been mopping up to them rather than removing them. She rectified this problem and cleaned the mats. The bathroom floors are being cleaned with the wrong kind of mop. The correct materials will be provided to the person doing the cleaning. It was suggested that we have the kitchen floors stripped, cleaned and resealed. We may do this after the high season. He will also check the cleaning contract to see who is responsible for cleaning around the front gate area. The weeds are growing because of the recent rains. He will spray those and check the large areas to see if they need to be professionally treated again.

WELCA –Susan Drane reported that the Bazaar collected $7,500.00 Donations of $1,000 each will be presented to Family Promise, Hope Women’s Center, Native American Urban Mission, Feed My Starving Children, Navajo Lutheran Mission, ELCA Good Gift and DODOMA Christian Medical Center at the WELCA Spring Luncheon to be held March 20th at Gold Canyon. The Rio Salado Gathering will be March 21st.

Next meeting will be April 7, 2020 at 1:00 pm in the Forum Room.

Pr. Tina adjourned us with prayer followed by the Lord’s Prayer.

Lutheran Campformation

Planning for Lutheran Campformation has begun for summer 2020! Last year we had 7 young women attend camp; 2 as counselors, 1 as a counselor-in-training and 4 as campers! The young ladies shared their experiences in youth-led services at both East Mesa and Gold Canyon. Camp is $325.00 per person. We hope to fundraise most, if not all, the expense. Lutheran Campformation is July 5th – 10th, 2020 with counselors and executive staff reporting on the 4th of July.

Vacation Bible School – June 15th -19th

Planning for VBS 2020 has begun!
Our theme this year is Rainforest Explorers.
Vacation Bible School will be held the 3rd week in June from 5:30pm- 8pm. Please prayerfully consider serving as an adult leader during VBS. To sponsor a child a donation of $20.00 would be appreciated. That $20.00 covers: dinner, crafts for 5 days, a music cd and t-shirt.

Campuses Closed Ministry Continues

While the activities listed on our calendar are suspended indefinitely, we are leaving up the calendar on our website to remind you that life will again resemble what we have known as “normal.”

However, we serve a God who is making all things new, who never leaves us nor forsakes us, so there will be a new “normal” one day soon.

Please pray for the ministries represented on our calendar as we long for the day when we can serve God and neighbor face-to-face.
